

Truth! Dare! Scare!

07.04.001

This exciting dice game has been developed and piloted by 'The Dundee Young Women's Project'. It can be played with 6 young people or 60 - in fact, the more young people about, the more fun there is to be had. The game was developed with the help of numerous young people and has been tried out in youth groups, schools, family centres, after school clubs and summer play schemes. It's also been tested with all ages from 6 to 18. The aims of the game are; co-operation; to raise awareness of issues of safety and violence; to identify strategies for dealing with potentially risky situations; to talk about situations young people can find themselves in; to provide opportunities for discussion on youth issues; to provide age appropriate information; and to have fun.

But That's Not Love

07.11.002

N Chapman, J Clapson, M Plaistead

This video was developed and made with the contributions & participation of children & young people. Includes a set of training materials comprising of 4 x 3 hour sessions with activities, handouts designed for use with young people 14+. Based on children & young people's experiences & perceptions of domestic violence. Covers relationships, rights & responsibilities. Useful for health, social or educational services in the statutory or voluntary sector.

Child Abuse

07.15.002

Toni Battison & Sue Kerr

The purpose of the pack is to provide users with straight-forward information about the various forms of child abuse and to cover such aspects as the inter-agency role, the current laws and the part played by the media. In addition, there are many activities which are suitable for use as group work exercises and triggers for discussion.

Child Abuse Issues

07.13.003

Editor: Craig Donnellan

Information gathered from a wide variety of sources to stimulate debate. Looks at the issues of child abuse and sex offenders. Offers a useful starting-point for those who need convenient access to information about the many issues involved. Contains a list of organisations you may want to contact for further information. Includes photocopiable study guide. [PLEASE NOTE: Includes information about Paedophilia and the article on page 35 is CONTROVERSIAL)

Child Protection And Education

07.13.007

Mary Baginsky

This report highlights the importance of child protection in education, and the challenges faced at all levels when services are under pressure. While emphasising the commitment of teachers, it indicates the support needed to help them fulfil their responsibilities. This report will be of interest to everyone working in and with schools, as well as to professionals involved in multi-agency work with children.

Child Sexual Abuse

07.13.001

Danya Glaser & Stephen Frosh

This book offers a guide through the maze of current opinion by presenting an integrated factual and theoretical account of child sexual abuse alongside clear guidelines for professional intervention. Part 1 describes the characteristics of child sexual abuse and presents a critical account of current explanatory theories, while Part II details the steps to be taken at all stages of the intervention process.

Confronting Child Abuse

07.13.005

Editor: Craig Donnellan

This book contains information gathered from a wide variety of sources to stimulate debate. Confronting Child Abuse examines child abuse and paedophilia. Offers a useful starting point for those who need convenient access to information about the many issues involved. Contains a list of organisations you may want to contact for further information. Includes a photocopiable study guide.

Dealing With Domestic Violence

07.13.004

Editor: Craig Donnellan

This book contains information gathered from a wide variety of sources to stimulate debate. Dealing with Domestic Violence looks at forms of domestic violence, the current situation in the UK and what can be done to protect women and children who are victims of domestic violence. Offers useful a useful starting point for those who need convenient access to information about the many issues involved. Contains a list of organisations you may want to contact for further information. Includes a photocopyable study guide.

Making An Impact: Children And Domestic Violence

07.13.002

Marianne Hester, Chris Pearson and Nicola Harwin

The first part of this Reader looks at the links between domestic violence and the abuse of children, and assesses its effect on their future well-being. Part two is a guide to relevant criminal and civil legislation. The last part details practical issues to interventions with children and their carers, and domestic violence perpetrators. Produced by a consortium consisting of the NSPCC, Barnardo's and the University of Bristol, and commissioned by the Department of Health, this Reader will enable professionals working with children to develop informed, sophisticated and collaborative child care and protection responses for children who are experiencing domestic violence.

What To Do If You're Worried A Child Is Being Abused

07.13.006

Dept of Health COS(C)CNI

This practice guidance has been developed to assist practitioners to work together to promote children's welfare and safeguard them from harm. It is for anyone whose work brings them into contact with children and families, but particularly those who work in social care, health, education and criminal justice services. It is relevant to those working in the statutory or the independent sector, as well as to members of the wider community, and applies to all children and young people irrespective of whether they are living at home with their families and carers or away from home. Where children are living in foster care or in an institutional setting, including custody, assessments and decisions about further action should also include consideration of the role of the responsible carers, residential or custodial staff as well as parents and other family members.

Kidscape Primary Kit

07.15.001

This pack is for use with primary teachers, who would like to run a course on "Good Sense Defence". This aims to give children practical ways of dealing with potentially dangerous situations, including sexual abuse. The pack consists of four units. Each unit deals with a different aspect of the programme; shows you how to use the kit; tells you about kidscape; gives you background information about child sexual abuse. A video is included in this pack.

Preventing Family Violence

07.15.004

Josephine Warrior

This manual examines the nature and impact of different forms of family violence on children. Examples of good practice illustrate some of the work that is being carried out with children, families and communities across the world, and offer a variety of approaches to tackling this very sensitive issues. The case studies presented demonstrate that even in the most culturally-sensitive areas, and where funds are limited, it is possible to make an important difference. This practical manual also offers a range of activities for those who wish to develop or pursue similar work including: understanding the different forms of family violence; why and how it occurs; the rights that young people have; and strategies to turn these rights into reality.

The Wee Vip Project

07.15.003

This pack is an abuse prevention programme for pre-school children and their parents. This pack aims to help children explore feelings and identify what 'being safe' means to the, and uses a song, story, video and game to teach children how to "Say No, Go and Tell" if they feel upset or hurt. This pack contains a video, story book, a game, staff resource pack, parents' resource pack, trainers' notes.

